- ✓ An appropriate sized self-addressed stamped envelope for the return of your processed copies.

STEP 6: SERVE THE RESPONDING PARTY

- Once you have filed your forms with the Court and have received conformed copies back from the Clerk's Office, you will need to serve the responding party with their conformed/stamped copies.
- Service means giving legal notice to the other party (or parties) that you have filed court papers. You must provide proof of service to the court.

- Listed below are the different methods of service:

ACCEPTANCE OF SERVICE: The other party must sign the “Acceptance of Service” form in front of a Notary Public and return it to you. The other party cannot sign the “Acceptance of Service” until after you have filed the court papers with the court. The other party’s signature on the “Acceptance of Service” does not mean that he/she agrees with the court papers. It means that the other party admits receiving the papers, without being served in person by the sheriff or a process server.

SERVICE BY CERTIFIED MAIL: This method of service allows you to give notice by a special type of mail. You can send the court papers by giving the post office copies of the court papers in an envelope, postage prepaid, to be sent to the other party by any form of mail requiring a signed and returned receipt. This is often called Certified Mail, Restricted Delivery by the post office. This means that the other party must sign for the papers. The Post Office will then return to you a Green Return Receipt containing the other party’s signature. The Green Return Receipt will then need to be attached to the completed Affidavit of Service by Certified Mail. The Affidavit of Service by Certified Mail form must be completed/filled out in full and signed in front of a Notary Public. You will then submit to the Court the original Affidavit of Service by Certified Mail

SERVICE BY REGISTERED PROCESS SERVER: This method requires you to hire, and pay, a registered process server to serve the other party with court papers. A process server is a person who will give the papers to the other party at home, work, or other location. The registered process server will give the Court a Sworn Affidavit of Service and/or Certificate of Service stating that the person was served. This method of service costs more than service by acceptance and requires the process server to find the other party. Service is complete at the time the process server hands the other party the court papers. If you decide to use this method, and the other party lives outside of Arizona, you would need to find a registered process server in the state where the other party lives.

SERVICE BY SHERIFF: This method requires you to contact the Sheriff’s Office in the county where the other party lives to arrange for a Sheriff’s deputy to give the other party the court papers. This method requires you to pay a fee to the Sheriff’s Office. The Sheriff’s Office will give the Court a Sworn Affidavit of Service stating that the person was served.

For more detailed information and forms on service, please refer to our Service of Court Papers packet on our website.

STEP 7: WAITING PERIOD

Once you have served the court documents on the other party and filed the appropriate proof of service with the Clerk’s office, you now have to give the other party time to review the documents before moving on to the next step.

TIMEFRAME FOR WAITING

- Service by Acceptance - 21 Days if located in Arizona, 31 Days if located out of State
- Service by Certified Mail - 21 Days if located in Arizona, 31 Days if located out of State
- Service by Registered Process Server - 21 Days if located in Arizona, 31 Days if located out of State
- Service by Sheriff - 21 Days if located in Arizona, 31 Days if located out of State

- Service by Publication - 61 Days from first day of publication if located in or out of Arizona

STEP 8: FINALIZING YOUR CASE

There are different ways a case may finalize in the Court. Here are three different scenarios to help determine your next step:

- If the Other Party (the Respondent) has been served and proof of service is filed with the Court and the Other Party (the Respondent) has not filed a response with the court within the allotted time frame (waiting period), you may apply for Default. Please go to our website to view and/or print the default packet. At the time you submit your Application and Affidavit for Default to the Court, the Clerk will provide to you a Decree Assistance Project Screening Checklist. The checklist will instruct you to contact the Family Services of the Conciliation Court. You will contact the Conciliation Court ten (10) Court business days after the mailing of the Application and Affidavit for Default to the Responding party.
- If the Other Party (the Respondent) files a response with the court, your case will be scheduled for an Early Resolution Conference (Hearing). You will be contacted by the Conciliation Court with your hearing date. If you do not hear from the Conciliation Court within a few weeks of a response being filed, please contact them at: 520.866.7349. If you miss your hearing date you will be charged $166 for not showing.
- If both you (the Petitioner) and the Other Party (the Respondent) do not take any type of action within 120 days of filing the Petition; your case could be dismissed due to inactivity.

Both parents will consult and agree with the other parent regarding any extra activity that affects the minor children's access to the other parent.

Each parent will consider the other parent as care-provider for the minor children before making other arrangements.

Each parent will keep all communication regarding the minor child(ren) between the parents and will not use the minor child(ren) to convey information or to set up parenting time changes.

Each parent will encourage love and respect between the minor child(ren) and the other parent and neither parent shall do anything that may hurt the other parent's relationship with the minor children.

Both parents will exert their best efforts to work cooperatively in future plans consistent with the best interests of the minor children and to amicably resolve such disputes as may arise.

If either parent is unable to follow through with the time-sharing arrangements involving the minor child(ren), that parent will notify the other parent as soon as possible.

Both parents agree that if either parent moves out of the area and returns later, they will use the most recent "Parenting Plan/Access Agreement" in place before the move.

If the parents are unable to reach a mutual agreement regarding a legal change to their parenting orders, they will request mediation through the court or a private mediator of their choice.

Obtain Written Consent or Court Order Before Moving: Notice required by ARS 25-408 shall be made by certified mail, return receipt requested, or pursuant to the Arizona rules of family law procedure. The court shall sanction a parent who, without good cause, does not comply with the notification requirements of this law. The court may impose a sanction that will affect the legal decision-making or parenting time only in accordance with the child's best interests.

Parental Access to Records and Information Pursuant to Arizona law, unless otherwise provided by court order or law, on reasonable request both parents are entitled to have equal access to documents and other information concerning the minor child(ren)'s education and physical, mental, moral and emotional health including medical, school, police, court and other records. A person who does not comply with a reasonable request for these records shall reimburse the requesting parent for court costs and attorney fees incurred by that parent to make the other parent obey this request. A parent who attempts to restrict the release of documents or information by the custodian of the records without prior court order is subject to legal sanctions.

Notice: Do not deviate from Parenting Plan until dispute is resolved. Both parents are advised that while a dispute is being resolved, neither parent shall deviate from this Parenting Plan or act in a way that is inconsistent with the terms of this agreement.

Once this plan has been made an order of the Court, if either parent disobeys the court order related to parenting time with the children, the other parent may submit court papers to request enforcement.
