REPRESENTING YOURSELF IN FAMILY COURT

This brief guide provides some very basic information to help you understand the proceedings. It does not tell you everything about family law or family court, and it is no substitute for understanding Title 25 of the Arizona Revised Statutes, the Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure, and the Arizona Rules of Evidence. For more information, you should go to the Pinal County Superior Court website (www.pinalcountyz.gov/Departments/JudicialBranch/) or consult a lawyer.

Proceedings in Family Court

Proceedings in Family Court follow the Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure.

In a divorce or paternity case, you may be referred to an Expedited Differentiated Case Management Conference, Mediation, Family Assessment, or a Settlement Conference (sometimes called an Alternative Dispute Resolution or “ADR”). These proceedings are designed to help the parties reach agreement on all or some of their disputes. They generally are not conducted by your assigned Judge.

You may also have to appear before the Judge for a pretrial hearing. The most common pretrial hearings are (1) a Resolution Management Conference, which helps the Judge manage the case by, among other things, setting deadlines and a trial date; and (2) a Temporary Orders Hearing, at which the Judge may issue temporary orders to govern the case until the trial.

If you do not reach a settlement of all issues, there will be a trial. This is the single hearing where the Judge will hear your evidence and make final decisions on disputed issues.

Disclosure and Discovery

To help parties prepare for the trial, the Arizona Rules of Family Law Procedure have disclosure and discovery requirements.

Disclosure requirements are in Rule 49. Each party must voluntarily provide certain information to the other party. You have an obligation to disclose such information to the other party, and you have a right to insist that the other party disclose such information to you. Failure to disclose as required may result in sanctions, including being barred from offering evidence that was not timely disclosed.

If you need information that is not voluntarily disclosed, you may engage in discovery, such as requesting documents from a party or subpoenaing documents from non-parties. Rules 51 through 65 of the Arizona Rules of Family Court discuss the requirements for discovery.

What is a Trial?

A trial is the time for you and for the other party to present evidence on disputed issues.

Additional Issues if Your Case Involves a Divorce:

- Spousal maintenance.
- Division of community property and allocation of debts.

The Judge will decide these issues based on the evidence presented during the trial. Only evidence you bring to the trial will be considered.

After the trial, the Judge may issue a ruling in open court or may take the case “under advisement,” which means that the Judge will issue a written ruling at a later time.

The judge’s ruling may be a signed decree or judgment, which officially concludes the case. If the judge chooses, the judge may decide disputed issues and then require one or both of the parties to submit a decree for the judge’s signature.

Preparing for The Trial

When preparing for the trial, it is critical that you read the judge’s minute entries carefully. The minute entries typically contain the Judge’s requirements for the trial. These requirements may include:

(1) Submitting a pretrial statement that describes the issues in the case and lists your witnesses and exhibits; and (2) Giving copies of your exhibits to the Clerk and to the other party before the trial.

Many Judges impose time limits at the trial. It is your responsibility to make sure you present all your evidence in the time allotted.

What Happens During the Trial?

The main thing that happens during the trial is the presentation of evidence. The Judge will make decision based on the evidence presented during the trial. Evidence is generally of two kinds: (1) Witness testimony and (2) Documents.

When you call a witness to testify, you must ask the witness questions. A witness may only answer questions that are asked. When the party who called a witness is done with questioning, the other party may “cross-examine” the witness by asking additional questions.

A party may testify as a witness on his or her own behalf. However, while a witness is on the stand, the parties may only ask questions. Arguing with a witness or commenting on the answers is not allowed.

Documents may be evidence at the trial, but you must follow the proper procedure. Before the trial (usually 5 days before), you must give documents that you want to use to the Clerk of the Court to be “marked” with an exhibit number. However, marking an exhibit does not mean it is evidence. Rather, during the trial, you must “offer” the exhibit by asking the judge to admit it into evidence. The judge then decides whether to admit the evidence. The judge will consider only evidence that is admitted.

Proper Court Behavior

Although family cases are often emotional, it is important that everyone act in an orderly and respectful way in court. Here are some “Do’s and Don’ts:”

- Do dress appropriately. Don’t wear hats, sunglasses, tank tops, shorts, or flip-flops.
- Do wait your turn to speak. Don’t interrupt while someone else is talking.
- Do treat others with respect. Don’t curse, make faces, or engage in confrontational behavior.
- Do be honest and candid with the judge.
- Do make sure that friends and family who accompany you sit quietly. They are not allowed to speak unless called as a witness, and then only when they are testifying.

For Additional Information

This guide presents very basic information. For additional information, read the applicable statutes and rules, visit the Pinal County Superior Court website (www.pinalcountyaz.gov/Departments/Judicial Branch) and if necessary, consult a lawyer.

PETITION AND PAPERS FOR “LEGAL SEPARATION WITHOUT CHILDREN”

CHECKLIST

USE THE FORMS AND INSTRUCTIONS in this packet only if the following factors apply to your situation:

- ✓ You want to file a petition for legal separation. Warning: If the other party does not want a Legal Separation, the Court will not enter a Legal Separation,

AND

- ✓ You are not ready to file for divorce.

AND

- ✓ You and your spouse have no minor children with each other AND the wife is not pregnant by the husband or will not be pregnant by the husband before the Legal Separation is over, (if you have children together, see the Legal Separation with Children packet)

AND

- ✓ Either you or your spouse live in Arizona, or one of you is a member of the armed forces and is stationed in Arizona,

AND

- ✓ Either you or both of you desire to live separate and apart or you believe that the marriage is irretrievably broken (you and your spouse cannot make the marriage work),

AND

- ✓ You or your spouse has tried to resolve your problems through Conciliation Court, or

READ ME: It is very important for you to know that when you sign a court document, you may be helping or hurting your court case. Before you sign any court document, or get involved with a court case, it is important that you see a lawyer to make sure you are doing the right thing.

INSTRUCTIONS
“Petition for Legal Separation without Children”

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE: Domestic violence can be part of any marriage. Domestic violence includes physical violence such as hitting, slapping, pushing or kicking or threats of physical violence directed against you and/or your children and/or verbal abuse used to control you and/or your children.

Court documents request your address and phone number. If you are a victim of domestic violence, and you do not want your address to be known to protect yourself or your children from further violence, you must file a “Petition for an Order of Protection” and ask that your address not be disclosed on court papers. With that Order, you do not need to put your address and phone number on your legal separation papers. Just write "protected" in the space on the form where you are asked for this information. You must tell the Clerk of the Court your address and phone number as soon as possible so the court can get in touch with you. The court will keep your address protected.

(ALL FORMS: TYPE OR PRINT IN BLACK INK)

FAMILY COURT COVER SHEET

- The Family Court Cover Sheet is REQUIRED to be completed and filed in Pinal County.
- Write in the information requested about the petitioner, respondent and any children under the age of 18.
- DO NOT INCLUDE MAILING ADDRESS ON THIS FORM IF REQUESTING ADDRESS PROTECTION.
- Case Type: Mark only one box that matches the legal procedure for which you are filing the documents in this packet: [x] Legal Separation.
- Interpreter: Check “yes” or “no” to indicate whether an interpreter is needed. If “yes,” write in what language(s).
- No additional copies needed. Do NOT serve this document on the other party.

SENSITIVE DATA SHEET

- Write in the information requested about petitioner, respondent, and any children under the age of 18.
- DO NOT INCLUDE MAILING ADDRESS ON THIS FORM IF REQUESTING ADDRESS PROTECTION.
- No additional copies needed. Do NOT serve this document on the other party.

SUMMONS AND PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION: Fill in the following information: Your name; street address (if not protected); city, state and zip code; telephone number; ATLAS number; name of Petitioner (your name); name of Respondent (your spouse's name). You will have an ATLAS number ONLY if you receive or have received AFDC or other public benefits for your minor child(ren) that are common to you and your spouse. If you are represented by an attorney, write in the attorney’s bar number. Tell the court whether you represent yourself or are represented by an attorney. DO NOT fill out the rest of the form except on Page 2 of the Preliminary Injunction; fill out the description of other party. The Clerk of Court will complete it later.

PETITION FOR LEGAL SEPARATION WITHOUT CHILDREN:

- A. Use this form ONLY if you are getting a legal separation and there are no children under the age of 18, common to you and your spouse, whether by birth or adoption, AND you do not have a “covenant” marriage. Make sure your form is titled “PETITION FOR LEGAL SEPARATION WITHOUT CHILDREN.”

- B. In the top left corner of the first page, fill out the following: your name (if you are the person filling out the petition and filing the petition with the court); your address (if not protected); your city, state and zip code; your telephone number; and your ATLAS number, if you are receiving or have received AFDC from the Arizona Department of Economic Security; Attorney Bar Number, if represented by a lawyer; then check the box to say whether you are representing yourself or not.

- C. Fill in your name in the space that says "Name of Petitioner." Remember, you will be the PETITIONER through the whole case. (This includes any emergency petitions, temporary petitions, and post-legal separation decree petitions.) In the space that says "Name of Respondent", fill in the name of your spouse. Your spouse will be the RESPONDENT for the rest of this case. (This includes any emergency petitions, temporary petitions, and post-legal separation decree petitions.)

- D. Leave line blank for “DO” Case Number. When you file your papers, you will receive a case number from the Clerk of the Court.

GENERAL INFORMATION:

- 1. INFORMATION ABOUT YOU, THE PETITIONER. Fill in the Petitioner’s name, address (if not protected), date of birth, social security number, occupation, and length of time in Arizona.

- 2. INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR SPOUSE, THE RESPONDENT. Fill in the Respondent’s name, address, (if you know it) date of birth, social security number, occupation, and length of time in Arizona.

- 3. INFORMATION ABOUT YOUR MARRIAGE. Fill in the date you were married, and the city and state where you were married. If you do not know this information, and you were married in Pinal County, you may get a copy of your marriage license from the Clerk of the Superior Court at 31 North Pinal Street in Florence. If you were married in another county in Arizona, go to the Clerk of the Superior Court in the county seat where you were married to get this information. To use these forms, your marriage cannot be a “covenant” marriage. One way to tell whether you have a covenant marriage is to find out whether you signed a document with language similar to this on it: “We solemnly declare that marriage is a covenant between a man and a woman who agree to live together as husband and wife for as long as they both live. We have chosen each other carefully. We understand that a covenant marriage is for life. If we experience marital difficulties, we commit ourselves to take all reasonable efforts to preserve our marriage, including marital counseling. We declare that our marriage will be bound by Arizona law on covenant marriages and we promise to love, honor and care for one another as husband and wife for the rest of our lives.” Check the box to say that your marriage was not a “covenant” marriage. If your marriage was a “covenant” marriage, or if you have questions about whether you have a “covenant” marriage, contact a lawyer for help.

4. 90-DAY REQUIREMENT. This tells the court that you OR your spouse have lived in Arizona, or been stationed in Arizona while in the Armed Forces, for at least 90 (ninety) days prior to the day you filed the “Petition for Legal Separation without Children.” Before you file for a legal separation, this MUST be true. IF IT IS NOT TRUE, YOU CANNOT FILE FOR LEGAL SEPARATION.

INFORMATION ABOUT PROPERTY AND DEBT:

READ ME!!!!!! The information you give in paragraphs 5 and 6 tells the court about your property and debts, and how you think your property and debts should be divided. Community property is generally any property you and your spouse purchased during your marriage or paid for during the marriage, no matter WHO uses the property or WHO paid the money. Unless property was a gift or an inheritance, or acquired after the Petition for Dissolution was served on the Respondent, generally all property acquired during the marriage is community property, and both you and your spouse are entitled to roughly an equal share of this property. Community debts or bills are generally any debt you and your spouse acquired during your marriage, no matter WHO spent the money. Separate property and/or separate debt is generally any property you had, or brought into the marriage. HOWEVER, there are exceptions to these statements. For example, some property acquired during the marriage is still considered separate property. For example, if you were involved in an automobile accident, and received damages for pain and/or suffering or will receive damages for pain and suffering, the money you received, or will receive, for pain and suffering is your separate property. If you have questions, or have a lot of community property or debt, you should speak with an attorney BEFORE filing your Petition or other papers.

- 5.a. COMMUNITY PROPERTY: If you and your spouse do not have any property from the marriage, check the first box. If you and your spouse do have property together, check the second box. If you checked the second box, you must tell the Court what property should go to you and what property should go to your spouse. Generally, the Court will divide the property 50-50 as of the time the Respondent was served with the Petition for Legal Separation, unless there are good reasons why this should not happen. It is unlikely that the Court will give most, or all, of the property to either spouse, so put some thought into what you think would be a fair division before answering this question. Usually, if you and your spouse cannot decide which spouse should receive which property, the Court will order that the property be sold and any money received divided between you and your spouse.

First, list the property that you want the court to award to you, the Petitioner, and list the property that you want the court to award to your spouse, the Respondent. Put a check in the box that matches the property you want to go to which person. You should describe the property thoroughly for identification purposes and state its value when asked. You can use the brand name, model and serial number where applicable.

TYPES OF PROPERTY:

- a) Real Property (property (land) or home). Check who you want to get the property. You can ask the court to give you the property (land/home), to give the property (land/home) to your spouse, or to sell the property (land/home) and divide the proceeds. You should write the complete address of the property under "Real Estate Located at." Most property has a legal description such as "LOT 77, PINE TREE ACRES, according to Book 111 of Maps," which appears on your deed papers. You should use the legal description for your property. A cemetery plot is considered real property.

- b) Household furniture. This includes sofas, beds, tables, and so forth.
- c) Household furnishings. This includes things in the house other than furniture, for example: dishes, small appliances, rugs, and so forth.
- d) Other. List things that you want, or you want your spouse to have, that have not been listed.
- e) Pension/retirement fund/profit sharing/stock plans/401K. You and your spouse each generally have a right to a one-half interest in the other spouse's plan, based upon the length of your marriage. The longer the marriage, the greater your financial interest in your spouse's plan. (Your interest, usually, includes up to 50 percent of the benefits/plan if you have been married the whole time the plan has existed.) Check this box if you want to divide your interest in a retirement or profit sharing/retirement/401K plan. If you check this box, you must see an attorney about a document called a Qualified Domestic Relations Order or QDRO. A QDRO is a very specialized legal document that requires professional assistance to prepare.
- f) Motor vehicles. List the Vehicle Identification Number (VIN), the year and make of the car (Ford, Honda) and the model (Mustang, Lumina). Then state its estimated value.

5.b. SEPARATE PROPERTY: If you did not have property, or bring any property into the marriage, check the first box. If your spouse did not have or bring any property into the marriage, check the next box. If you or your spouse did have property and brought property into the marriage or if you or your spouse have separate property, check the third and/or fourth box. If you checked the third and/or fourth box, you must tell the court what property you brought into the marriage and what property your spouse brought into the marriage or what property is separate property. List the property that you want the court to award to you, the Petitioner, and list the property that you want the court to award to your spouse, the Respondent. Put a check in the box that matches the property you want to go to which person. You should describe the property thoroughly for identification purposes and state its value. You can use the brand name, model and serial numbers when applicable.

6.a. COMMUNITY DEBTS: If you and your spouse do not owe money on any debts from the marriage or do not owe community debt, check the first box and go directly to paragraph 7. If you and your spouse do owe money on any debts from the marriage or any community debt, check the second box. If you check the second box, tell the court which debts you should pay and which debts your spouse should pay. The court will attempt to make a fair division of the debts. If you get property that has a debt on it, you will probably also be given the debt. Ordering one person to pay all the debt(s) is unusual. Think about what is a fair division of the debts before answering this question. Provide enough information to accurately identify each debt.

If you and your spouse have been separated and have acquired new debts on your own before filing for legal separation, you may want the court to order that each of you personally pay for any new debt(s) incurred after the date you separated. You can make this request on the last page of your Petition under letter D "Community Debts."

- 6.b. SEPARATE DEBTS: If you and your spouse do not owe money on any debts incurred prior to the marriage, and do not have separate debt, check the first box and go directly to number 7. If you owe money on debts incurred prior to the marriage, or have separate debt, check the second box. If your spouse owes money on debts incurred prior to the time you were married, or has separate debt, check the third box. If either you or your spouse owes money on any debts you or your spouse brought into the marriage, or have separate debt, describe the debts, and tell the court which debts you should pay and which debts your spouse should pay.

INFORMATION ABOUT TAX RETURNS:

7. Tax Returns: Decide what you want to do about any income tax refund. Check the box if you want income taxes to be paid as stated. If you have questions, you should see a lawyer, an accountant, and/or contact the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

INFORMATION ABOUT SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE/SUPPORT (ALIMONY):

8. Spousal Maintenance/Support (Alimony): This is the term used to describe money paid from one spouse to the other spouse as part of a legal separation settlement. You may know the term as alimony or spousal maintenance. Spousal Maintenance/Support is designed as a safety net for a spouse who cannot provide for his/her needs or who meets other requirements listed on the Petition under paragraph 8. The idea behind spousal maintenance/support is that accomplishments during your marriage, including increases in earning potential and living standards, are shared, and earned, by BOTH parties to a marriage. Look at paragraph 8 to see if spousal maintenance/support applies to you or your spouse. If spousal maintenance/support applies, check the box that most applies to you. If none of the boxes apply, or you do not want spousal maintenance/support, go to paragraph 9. Check all the boxes that apply to your situation. Spousal maintenance/support is paid separately from child support and is NOT a substitute for child support.

INFORMATION ABOUT PREGNANCY:

9. Pregnancy: If the wife IS NOT pregnant at this time, check the first box and go on. If the wife IS pregnant, check the second box. Fill out the date the baby is due, and fill in any information regarding the parents of the unborn child. WARNING. If the Petitioner and the Respondent are the parents of the unborn child, STOP. You must file a "Petition for Legal Separation with Children."

10. Desire to Live Separate and Apart: Your marriage must be irretrievably broken (over) or you and/or your spouse must desire to live separate and apart. If this is not a true statement, you cannot file for Legal Separation.
11. Other Statements to the Court: You are telling the court that you believe the following statements are true:
- o Written Agreement. Check this box only if you and your spouse have a written agreement regarding spousal maintenance and division of property/debt that both you and your spouse signed BEFORE you filed the Petition for Legal Separation. If you have only discussed these issues and do not have a written agreement, do NOT check this box.
 - o The conciliation requirements do not apply or have been met. This means that you do not think marriage counseling through the court will help you get back with your spouse.

REQUESTS TO THE COURT: This section requests that the court grant you and your spouse a Legal Separation and tells the court other requests you are making:

- A. Legal Separation. This is your request to legally separate your non-covenant marriage.
- B. SPOUSAL MAINTENANCE/SUPPORT. This tells the court that you or your spouse should pay money to the other spouse on a monthly basis to help with living expenses. Check the first box if YOU (the Petitioner) will be paying spousal maintenance/support. Check the second box if YOUR SPOUSE (the Respondent) will be, or should be, paying spousal maintenance/support. If you or your spouse should not pay spousal maintenance/support, do not check either box, and GO ON. (You can check a box only if you checked the corresponding box in the spousal maintenance/support section, paragraph 8.) If you request spousal maintenance/support, choose what you believe to be a reasonable monthly amount and tell the court how long the money should be paid. Base the amount of any request on the receiving party's need and the income of the party who will be paying this money. Spousal maintenance/support is not a substitute for, nor a supplement to, court ordered child support.
- C. COMMUNITY PROPERTY. This tells the court that your division of the property is fair, and that the court should divide the property as requested by you in your Petition.
- D. COMMUNITY DEBT. This tells the court that your division of the debt is fair, and that the court should divide the debts as requested by you in your Petition. IF YOU HAVE BEEN SEPARATED FROM YOUR SPOUSE FOR ENOUGH TIME THAT YOU OR YOUR SPOUSE MAY HAVE ADDITIONAL DEBTS, WRITE THE DATE OF SEPARATION ON THE LINE PROVIDED IF YOU WANT EACH SPOUSE TO PAY THE DEBTS INCURRED AFTER YOU SEPARATED.
- E. SEPARATE PROPERTY. This states that you will keep the property you owned before the marriage and/or after the Respondent was served with the Petition for Legal Separation and that your spouse will keep the property they owned before the marriage and/or after the Respondent was served with the Petition for Legal Separation.

F. OTHER ORDERS. Tell the court anything else you may want ordered that has not been covered in your Petition.

OATH OR AFFIRMATION AND VERIFICATION OF PETITIONER: Sign this form in front of a Clerk of the Superior Court or a notary public. By doing so, you are telling the Court that everything contained in the Petition is true, under penalty of perjury.

NOTICE OF RIGHT TO CONVERT HEALTH INSURANCE: This is an important document that explains what to do about health care coverage for yourself and your minor child(ren). Read it carefully, and be sure a copy is served on your spouse, along with the other legal separation papers.

NOTICE REGARDING CREDITORS: This is an important document that tells you and your spouse that you are responsible for community debts to creditors even though the court order or decree says that only one of you (either you or your spouse) are responsible. This notice must be served on your spouse. In addition, read this notice to find out how to obtain information from your creditors about account balances.

OTHER IMPORTANT PAPERS IN THIS PACKET:

Also attached is the packet for Service of Court Papers. All of the instructions and forms are included.

CHANGE OF ADDRESS: It is very important for you (Petitioner and Respondent) to keep the court informed of your most current address. This means that if the address information on this form is incorrect or if you change addresses, you must contact the Clerk of the Court and give them your new or current address. Change of Address forms can be obtained at one of our locations.

NOTICE REGARDING CREDITORS

Name of Respondent

HONORABLE: _____

ARIZONA LAW REQUIRES all actions for DIVORCE or LEGAL SEPARATION to include this NOTICE and for the person filing for Divorce or Legal Separation to SERVE this NOTICE on the other party. (ARS 25-318(F)).

YOU AND YOUR SPOUSE ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR COMMUNITY DEBTS. The court usually requires/orders one spouse or the other to pay certain community debts in, or through, the Decree of Dissolution or Legal Separation. A court order that does this is binding on the spouses only, not the creditors. You and your spouse are legally responsible for these community debts whether you are married, divorced, or legally separated. These debts are matters of contract between both of you and your creditors (such as banks, credit unions, credit card companies, utility companies, medical providers and retailers). On request, the court may impose a lien against the separate property of a spouse to secure payment of certain community debts.

CONTACT CREDITORS: You may want to contact your creditors to discuss the debts and the effects of your divorce/legal separation on your debts. To assist you in identifying your creditors, you may obtain a copy of your spouse's credit report by making a written request to the court for an order requiring a credit reporting agency to release the report to you. The credit report will help you identify accounts, account numbers and account balances. In addition, within thirty (30) days after receipt of a request from a spouse who is party to a divorce or legal separation, which includes the court and cause number of the action, creditors are required, by law, to provide information as to the balance and account status of any debts for which you or your spouse may be liable to the creditor.

WARNING: If you do not understand this notice, you should contact an attorney for advice about your legal rights and obligations.

The following page contains a sample form you may choose to mail to creditors to get information about debts owed by you or your spouse. It is not a required form.

NOTICE OF YOUR RIGHTS ABOUT HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE
WHEN A PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION (DIVORCE) IS FILED
(A.R.S. 20-1377 AND 20-1408)

Name of Respondent

HONORABLE: _____

WARNING: THIS IS AN IMPORTANT LEGAL NOTICE. YOUR RIGHTS TO HEALTH INSURANCE COVERAGE COULD BE AFFECTED AFTER YOUR DIVORCE IS FINAL. READ THIS NOTICE CAREFULLY. IF YOU DO NOT UNDERSTAND THIS NOTICE, YOU SHOULD CALL AN ATTORNEY FOR ADVICE ABOUT YOUR LEGAL RIGHTS AND OBLIGATIONS.

IMPORTANT INFORMATION IF YOU ARE ON YOUR SPOUSE'S INSURANCE PLAN: When a Petition for Dissolution of Marriage (papers for a divorce decree) is filed, you and/or your children may continue to be covered under your spouse's health insurance policy. Arizona law allows the dependent spouse and/or children to continue to be covered, but you must take some steps to protect your rights.

WHAT INSURANCE COVERAGE APPLIES TO YOU, AND HOW TO GET IT: If you are covered by your spouse's health insurance, and you want to continue to be covered after the divorce is final, you must contact the insurance company as soon as possible, and you must start to pay the monthly insurance premium within 31 days of the date the insurance would otherwise stop.

If you decide you want to be covered, the insurer can choose whether to continue coverage under the current policy, or to change the policy to your name. If the policy is changed to your name, it is called a "converted"; policy. If the policy is converted by the insurer, the insurer must provide you the same or the most similar level of coverage available, unless you ask for a lower level of coverage.

WHAT COVERAGE APPLIES TO YOUR CHILDREN: If you choose to continue coverage as a dependent spouse, you can also choose to continue coverage for your dependent children if you are responsible for their care or support.

PREEXISTING CONDITIONS OR EXCLUSIONS FROM INSURANCE COVERAGE: Whether the insurance is continued or converted, the insurance must be provided to you without proof of insurability and without exclusions for coverage other than what was previously excluded before the insurance was continued or converted.

LIMITS ON RIGHTS TO INSURANCE COVERAGE FOR YOU AND YOUR CHILDREN: You may not be entitled to continued or converted coverage if you are eligible for Medicare or for coverage by other similar types of insurance which together with the continued coverage would make you over-insured. However, dependent children of a person who is eligible for Medicare may be covered by a continuance or a conversion. If you have questions about coverage, check with the insurer and/or the spouse's employer.

WARNING TO THE SPOUSE FILING THE PETITION FOR DISSOLUTION (DIVORCE): This Notice must be served on your spouse together with the Petition for Dissolution, the Summons, and the Preliminary Injunction.

SUPERIOR COURT OF ARIZONA
 PINAL COUNTY

_____ CASE NUMBER: S1100DO2
 Name of Petitioner

PRELIMINARY INJUNCTION

_____ HONORABLE: _____
 Name of Respondent

WARNING: This is an official Order from the court. It affects your rights. Read this Order immediately and carefully. If you do not understand it, contact a lawyer for help.

Your spouse has filed a “Petition for Dissolution” (Divorce) or “Petition for Annulment” or “Petition for Legal Separation” with the court. This Order is made at the direction of the Presiding Judge of the Superior Court of Arizona in Pinal County. This Order has the same force and effect as any order signed by the judge. You and your spouse must obey this Order. This Order may be enforced by any remedy available under the law, including an “Order of Contempt of Court.” To help you understand this Order, we have provided this explanation. Read the explanation and then read the statute itself. If you have any questions, you should contact a lawyer for help.

EXPLANATION: (What does this Order mean to you?)

1. ACTIONS FORBIDDEN BY THIS ORDER: From the time the “Petition for Dissolution” (Divorce) or “Petition for Annulment” or “Petition for Legal Separation” is filed with the court, until the judge signs the Decree, or until further order of the court, both the Petitioner and the Respondent shall not do any of the following things:
 - ✓ You may not hide earnings or community property from your spouse, AND
 - ✓ You may not take out a loan on the community property, AND
 - ✓ You may not sell the community property or give it away to someone, UNLESS you have

- ✓ the written permission of your spouse or written permission from the court. The law allows for situations in which you may need to transfer joint or community property as part of the everyday running of a business, or if the sale of community property is necessary to meet necessities of life, such as food, shelter, or clothing, or court fees and attorney fees associated with this action. If this applies to you, you should see a lawyer for help, AND
- ✓ Do not harass or bother your spouse or the children, AND
- ✓ Do not physically abuse or threaten your spouse or the children, AND
- ✓ Do not take the minor children, common to your marriage, out of the State of Arizona for any reasons, without a written agreement between you and your spouse or a Court Order, before you take the minor children out of the State.

Do not remove, or cause to be removed, the other party or the minor children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. Both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.

STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS: Arizona Law, A.R.S. 25-315(A) provides:

- 1(a). RESTRICTIONS ON PROPERTY OF THE MARRIAGE: That both parties are enjoined from transferring, encumbering, concealing, selling, or otherwise disposing of any of the joint, common or community property of the parties, except if related to the usual course of business, the necessities of life, or court fees and reasonable attorney fees associated with an action filed under this article, without the written consent of the parties or the permission of the court.
- 1(b). REQUIREMENTS OF BEHAVIOR: That both parties are enjoined from molesting, harassing, disturbing the peace, or committing an assault or battery on, the person of the other party or any natural or adopted child of the parties.
- 1(c). RESTRICTIONS ABOUT YOUR MINOR CHILDREN: That both parties are enjoined from removing any natural or adopted minor child(ren) of the parties, then residing in Arizona, from the jurisdiction of the court without the prior written consent of the parties or the permission of the court.
- 1(d). RESTRICTIONS ABOUT INSURANCE: That both parties are enjoined from removing, or causing to be removed, the other party or the minor children of the parties from any existing insurance coverage, including medical, hospital, dental, automobile and disability insurance. Both parties shall maintain all insurance coverage in full force and effect.
2. EFFECTIVE DATE OF THIS ORDER: This Order is effective against the person who filed for divorce, annulment, or legal separation (the Petitioner) when the Petition was filed with the court. It is effective against the other party (the Respondent) when it is served on the other party, or on actual notice of the Order, whichever is sooner. This Order shall remain in effect until further order of the court, or the entry of a Decree of Dissolution, Annulment, or Legal Separation.
3. ORDER TO PETITIONER: You must serve a copy of this Order upon the Respondent, along with a copy of the Petition for Dissolution, Annulment or Legal Separation, the Summons, and other required court papers.
4. WARNING: This is an official Court Order. If you disobey this Order, the court may find you in contempt of court. You may also be arrested and prosecuted for the crime of interfering with judicial proceedings and any other crime you may have committed by disobeying this Order.

5. LAW ENFORCEMENT: You or your spouse may file a certified copy of this Order with your local law enforcement agency. You may obtain a certified copy from the Clerk of the Court that issues this Order. If any changes are made to this Order and you have filed a certified copy of this Order with your local law enforcement agency, you must notify them of the changes.

SERVICE OF COURT PAPERS

CHECKLIST

“Service” means giving legally required notice to other parties that you have filed papers that may result in a court order that may affect them. The court papers can ONLY be delivered in a manner permitted by law, and proof of proper delivery must be filed with the court.

You may use the forms and instructions in this packet if . . .

- ✓ You have filed a Petition, Complaint, or other document in the Superior Court in a Civil or Family Court case and you are required to serve notice on other parties of what you have filed with the court,

AND

- ✓ You understand that your case cannot proceed until you have provided proof to the court that notice has been given in a manner permitted by law,

AND

- ✓ You understand that you may NOT hand-deliver the papers to the other party unless he or she (and no one else) will sign a “Family Court Acceptance of Service” form in front of a Notary and return the form for you to file with the Court.

NOTE: If you know you are going to have the papers served by the Sheriff’s Department or by a private process server in Pinal County and you do not need information about other methods of service, both the Sheriff and private process servers will have their own forms and you will not need this packet.

NOTE: If you are required to serve notice on a person outside the United States, you may need to see a lawyer or research international law to determine what methods of service are permitted in your situation.

READ ME: Consulting a lawyer before filing documents with the court may help prevent unexpected results.

INSTRUCTIONS

Serving the Other Party

1. SERVING THE OTHER PARTY:

- After you have filed your court papers with the Clerk of the Court, you must serve the papers on the other party.
- Service means giving legal notice to the other party (or parties) that you have filed court papers. You must provide proof of service to the court.
- This packet explains the steps you need to take to serve the other party and what forms you must use.
- By completing the steps for service, you tell the court that the other party has received a copy of the court papers. After the other party is served, the other party will be given a time limit to file a Response or Answer. The Response or Answer is the other party's written statement to your request. The Response or Answer tells you, and the court, what the other party wants.

2. METHODS OF SERVICE:

Read the choices below to make sure that you are using the correct method of service. Select the method of service that works best for you. (If the other party lives outside of the United States, you should see a lawyer to find out which method of service will work best for you.)

- A. Service by Acceptance. This method requires you to give, or mail the court papers to the other party and include a “Family Court Acceptance of Service” form. The other party must sign the “Family Court Acceptance of Service” form in front of a Notary Public and return it to you. The other party cannot sign the “Family Court Acceptance of Service” until after you have filed the court papers with the court. The other party's signature on the “Family Court Acceptance of Service” does not mean that he/she agrees with the court papers. It means that the other party admits receiving the papers, without being served in person by the sheriff or a process server.

Service is complete at the time the other party signs the “Family Court Acceptance of Service.” If you choose this method of service, use the “Family Court Acceptance of Service” form.

WARNING: Do not use this method of service if you are the victim of domestic violence, or believe the other party will hurt you, take your money, or take your children. If you believe the other party will become violent or uncooperative when you ask him/her to accept service, use one of the methods of service described below.

- B. Service by Registered Process Server. This method requires you to hire, and pay, a registered process server to serve the other party with court papers. A process server is a person who will give the papers to the other party at home, work, or other location. This method of service costs more than service by acceptance and requires the process server to find the other party. If you decide to use this method, look under "Process Server" in the Yellow Pages to find someone who can serve your papers. Service is complete at the time the process server hands the other party the court papers. If you decide to use this method, and the other party lives outside of Arizona, you would need to find a registered process server in the state where the other party lives.

- C. Service by Sheriff. This method requires you to contact the Sheriff's Office in the county where the other party lives to arrange for a Sheriff's deputy to give the other party the court papers. This method requires you to pay a fee to the Sheriff's Office. The Sheriff's Office will give the Court a Sworn Affidavit of Service stating that the person was served.

NOTE: Pinal County Sheriff's Deputy can only serve parties that are located within Pinal County. If the other party lives outside Pinal County, you will need to contact the Sheriff's Office in that county for information regarding service.

- D. Service by Certified Mail. This method of service allows you to give notice by a special type of mail. You can send the court papers by giving the post office copies of the court papers in an envelope, postage prepaid, to be sent to the other party by any form of mail requiring a signed and returned receipt. This is often called Certified Mail, Restricted Delivery by the post office. This means that the other party must sign for the papers.

If the other party signs a receipt (green receipt) for the papers, the green receipt will be returned to you in the mail. You must then file an affidavit with the court stating (1) that the court papers were sent to the other party, (2) that the papers were received by the other party, as evidenced by the original green receipt you attach to the affidavit; and (3) the date the party received the documents. A copy of the affidavit you will need is provided in the packet.

- E. Other Methods of Service. There may be other ways to serve the other party. To learn more about these other ways, you should see a lawyer for help.

3. WHEN YOU CANNOT FIND THE OTHER PARTY:

Before you begin service by Publication, you must first complete the "Declaration of Due Diligence and Request for Alternate Means of Service (Publication)" for the Judge to grant service by Publication.

If the Judge approves service by Publication the "Order for Alternate Means of Service" will be signed and a copy of the Order mailed to you, at that time you can continue with Publication.

- A. Service by Publication. You may use this method only if you do not know where the other party lives, or cannot find the other party. Service by publication is your "last resort." It is used only if you do not have a current address for the other party and have tried, unsuccessfully, to find the other party. Use a paper of general circulation and that are familiar with the requirements and regularly publishes legal notices.

Tips for Finding the Other party: Before the Court will accept "Service by Publication," you must have made every reasonable effort to find the Respondent and to give actual notice of this case by personal service of the required documents. You will be required to state, under penalty of perjury, the steps you have taken to try to locate the Respondent and if the Court is not satisfied that you have taken all reasonable steps, your case may be delayed until the Court is satisfied all such steps have been taken.

Examples of steps you MUST take: verify the Respondent is not at any last known address(es), talk to Respondent's friends, family members, employer, co-workers, former co-workers or employer(s), or anyone else you think may have a current address. Search telephone directories, the Internet, voter registration records, obituaries, and even the morgue. You may also have to consider hiring a private detective or a company that charges a fee to do computer searches to help you track down the other party. If you know the other party's date of birth and/or Social Security Number, this method may work for you.

Service by Publication can be expensive and may delay your court case. You would need to contact the newspaper to determine the cost of publication. Application for Deferral is only applicable to Pinal County newspapers. If you need to publish in another County or State, the Deferral of Fees is not applicable.

1. Publication must be done in the county where the case originated:

This method requires that a copy of the "Summons" be published in a newspaper of general circulation in Pinal County once a week for four consecutive weeks.

If the other party's last known address was also in Pinal County then the publication above will suffice for service to the other party.

2. How to publish service if the other party's last known address is in Arizona, but not in the county in which your case is pending:

- i. You must publish in the county in which your case is pending and you must publish in a newspaper in the county of the last known residence of the person to be served.
- ii. To publish in another county (not Pinal County) you will need to contact a newspaper in that county.
- iii. After you have contacted the newspaper and inquired about publication, mail or deliver the payment (or certified copy of the Order of Deferral) and "Letter to Newspaper" provided in this packet, along with copies of the "Summons" or documents you filed with the Court, to the newspaper for publication.
- iv. Wait for the newspaper to send you the original document called "Affidavit of Service" in five weeks.

3. Complete Your Paperwork. Fill out the "Affidavit Supporting Publication" provided in this packet. The "Affidavit Supporting Publication" is a statement affirming or swearing under oath that you have done everything possible to try to find the other party. File the original "Affidavit Supporting Publication" with the Clerk of the Superior Court.

You must also file the original "Affidavit of Service" that you received from the newspaper(s), verifying and stating the dates of publication.

WHEN IS A WRITTEN RESPONSE TO THE COURT PAPERS DUE?

- LOOK AT THE TIMETABLE BELOW. If the last day for the other party to respond falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or legal holiday, you do not count that day. The last day you count to determine if you can file the default papers, must be a day when this court is open for business.
- INCLUDE WEEKENDS AND HOLIDAYS. In counting the days, include weekends and holidays until you reach the number of days in the Timetable below. If the other party files a written Response or Answer with the court, you CANNOT FILE BY DEFAULT.

PROCEDURES

How to Serve Court Papers by Certified Mail

USE THIS PROCEDURE ONLY after you have filed your papers with the court.

STEP 1: GO TO THE POST OFFICE and tell the clerk you would like to mail the other party a letter as follows:

- Certified Mail, and
- Deliver to Addressee Only, and
- Restricted Delivery, and
- Return Receipt Requested, and
- Pay the postage.

STEP 2: WAIT for green receipt to be returned with the other party's signature. When you get the green receipt, note the date the other party received and signed for the papers.

STEP 3: PAPERS FOR THE COURT

- COMPLETE: Original of "Affidavit of Service by Certified Mail." Fill in ALL information requested on the form before proceeding. Be sure you fill in the date the other party received the papers. If you are unsure of the date, use the date you received the return receipt card. If you fail to list a date, the court may not process your papers and your case may be delayed.
- ATTACH: You must attach the original green receipt to the Affidavit to prove how you served the other party.
- COPY: Make yourself a copy of the "Affidavit of Service by Certified Mail" and a copy of the green receipt to keep for your files.

STEP 4: FILE PAPERS WITH THE COURT. File the Original "Affidavit of Service by Certified Mail" and the original green receipt with the Clerk of the Court.

STEP 5: COUNT. Note the date the other party was served the papers and start counting the days the other party has to file a Response or Answer. (When counting the days, start counting with the day after the other party signed the green receipt.)

INSTRUCTIONS

How to Serve Court Papers by Registered Process Server

STEP 1: FIND. You must hire a Registered Process Server. You may locate process servers in the commercial section of the phone book under "Process Server," or online by using the search term "Arizona Process Servers" or similar, or at the web site of the Arizona Process Server's Association at <http://arizonaprocessservers.org/>.

NOTICE: There are fees for service of court papers.

- May offer greater flexibility in serving papers "after-hours" or on short notice.
- Are paid directly by you, not through the court.
- If you qualify, Process Server Fees may be deferred or waived within Pinal County only.
- Out of County Process Server Fees may not be deferred or waived by the court.

STEP 2: GO. Go to the Registered Process Server's office. TAKE with you the following items:

- Copy of "Summons" (if your case has a summons).
- Other party's set of copies of the court papers.
- A picture or a written physical description of the other party.
- A written description of the automobile that the other party drives.
- The address where the other party can be served.
- The amount you need to pay for this service. (You can call ahead of time to ask the Process Server what type of payment they require.)

STEP 3: WAIT. The Process Server will mail you a copy of the "Affidavit of Service" after he/she serves the other party with the papers. IMPORTANT: If the Process Server does not file an "Affidavit of Service" with the Clerk of the Court, you must get the "Affidavit of Service" from the Process Server and file it.

STEP 4: COUNT. Look at the "Affidavit of Service" to find out the date the other party was served with the court papers and start counting the days for the other party to file a Response or Answer. When counting the days, start counting with the day after the other party was served the papers. Look at the “Affidavit of Service” to find out the date the other party was served with the court papers and start counting the days for the other party to file a Response or Answer. When counting the days, start counting with the day after the other party was served the papers.

DO NOT BRING CHILDREN TO COURT.

PROCEDURES

How to Serve Court Papers by Sheriff

STEP 1: GO. Contact the Sheriff's Office in the county where the other party lives. Bring your court papers with you, or send a copy of the court papers to the Sheriff's Office if the other party does not live in the same county as you do. The Pinal County Sheriff's Office is located at:

Pinal County Sheriff's Office

971 Jason Lopez Circle, Bldg C

Florence, AZ 85132

1-800-420-8689

NOTICE: There are fees for service of court papers.

STEP 2: WRITE. If you are asking that the papers be served by a Sheriff's Department other than Pinal County's, fill out the attached sheet for identifying the other party and provide:

- Other party's set of copies of the court papers.
- A picture or written physical description of the other party.
- A written description of the automobile the other party drives.
- The address where other party can be served.
- "Certified Order Waiving/Deferring Fees," or a $200.00 deposit fee - cash/money order.

STEP 3: WAIT. The Sheriff may mail you a copy of the "Affidavit of Service" after the other party is served with the papers, or the Sheriff may file these papers instead of sending them back to you.

STEP 4: COUNT. Read the "Affidavit of Service" to find out the date the other party was served with the court papers and start counting the days the other party must file a Response or Answer. (When counting the days, start counting with the day after the other party was served with the court papers.)
